

6516209053.txt

To whom it may concern:

I feel that the xmradio provides a service to the motoring public, as a long haul truck driver I depend on xm to give me instant traffic and weather for major cities across the country. I use the information to avoid major congestion in most major cities . To remove that from the xm radio format would be totally wrong and I for one am against any such action